	Name: Andrew Mitchell Organisation: Long Eaton Guild of Furniture Manufacturers Role on Board: Board Member About: I joined my family’s business in 1960, which my father established in Victoria Mill, Draycott some 8 years earlier, moving to Long Eaton in 1960 to be part of the expanding upholstery trade at that time. We manufacture both handcrafted upholstery and passementerie in a former lace mill. My daughter and two sons have key roles to maintain the future of the business. I am Chair of the Long Eaton Guild of Furniture Manufacturers, founded over 60 years ago by established upholsterers producing high quality lounge and contract furniture. Today, the town is recognised throughout the world as the UK Centre of Upholstery Manufacturing. Annual trade exhibitions held in local showrooms attract buyers from all over the UK and Ireland. I live locally, joining Long Eaton Rotary Club in 1976, later leaving to help form a new breakfast Club in 2008. I am currently secretary and senior vice president of this club. I enjoy being involved in local and overseas charitable activities, and helping the local community whenever I can. I am proud to be a member of an organisation that over the years has almost eradicated Polio world-wide. I am also a member of the Long Eaton Chamber of Trade.

	Name: James Gregory Organisation: Trent College – Director of Operations Role on Board: Board Member & Project Champion for Galaxy Row About: A resident of Erewash from birth, Long Eaton has always been my local ‘go to town’. Following a career in property and soft services, I have been employed as Director of Operations at Trent College Limited, a co-educational day and boarding school in Long Eaton for the last 12 years. Within my strategic leadership role and as a member of executive leadership team I make a major contribution to all areas of school strategy and lead on all property development, site master planning and service delivery matters. Married to Kim with three step children, we enjoy living in Long Eaton. I maintain a strong interest in local amateur music and drama, in particular musicals and choral works. My other interests include vintage and classic tractors, rugby, cricket and our Jack Russell Terrier Dotty! As project champion for Galaxy Row, I am keen to support the delivery of a sustainable development which will provide high quality residential and commercial accommodation. I also believe this development has the potential to significantly enhance the ‘gateway’ to our town. I am delighted to be a member of the Long Eaton Town’s Board. The opportunity to be involved in shaping the next phase of the town’s history is something I am passionate about.
